To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing to extend my heartfelt appreciation to the Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Community Center, the City of Dallas and the Hope. Encourage. Love. Protect. (HELP) Organization for their collective partnership in championing the values my father, Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., held so dearly.

Your commitment to fostering empowerment, unity, and opportunity for underprivileged communities shines through your partnership to administer the annual MLK Day Parade. I am honored to have the opportunity to meet with the youth receiving scholarships as part of the HELP Organization's MLK Parade Scholarship Program, which exemplifies the spirit of service and equality that my father envisioned.

I commend your contributions to the annual Martin Luther King Jr. Parade in Dallas and for your commitment to the Center that bares my father's name. Your work not only honors his legacy, but also reminds us all of the power of collective action in building a just and inclusive society.

It is truly through these types of collaborative partnerships, like the one between the Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Community Center, the City of Dallas and the HELP Organization, that we can advance the dream of justice, equality and opportunity for all.

Sincerely,

Martin Luther King III
